

A ONE-DAY THEMED WALK WITH DONKEYS

Walk in “Little Grey Donkey” country (after Henri Bosco “L’Ane Culotte”)

DISCOVER THE HERBS OF PROVENCE AT “DONKEY PACE”

Description:

A walk with a donkey in the hills to the “Ferme de Gerbaud” near Lourmarin for a guided visit to discover the cultivation of Provençal herbs, their properties and uses.

Leave Vaugines at 9 a.m., walk for about 2 hours in the Luberon hills followed by the guided visit, picnic and return to Vaugines late afternoon.

You will be delighted by the savoir-faire of the owner of the Ferme de Gerbaud and the charm and sweetness of the donkeys as walking companions.

Timing:

From 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., 10km circuit with about 200m difference of altitude.

Available:

From April to November

Place / location:

Cucuron, Vaugines, Lourmarin, South Luberon

We welcome:

Individuals (provided a minimum of 6 people are booked)

Family Groups (children over 6 years), adult groups, company groups

Price:

€ 15 per adult and 12 € per child (under 12 years). Free for the 3rd child.

Don't forget:

Your picnic!

Bring water for the day out

Wear good walking shoes

Please book with Netta Müller-Wolf on 0033 (0) 6 24 18 84 11
or email: anesebalades@gmail.com

The price includes:

- Hiring a donkey with a pack-saddle for the day
- The presence of the donkey owner
- Guided visit of the cultivation of the Herbs of Provence at the Ferme de Gerbaud (Lourmarin)
- Free access to the shop after the visit

Optional:

- Additional Donkey: 45 € per day
- Possibility to be accompanied by an expert, licensed hiking guide (additional 18 € per adult and 8 € per child).
- Locally prepared meal at the Ferme de Gerbaud for groups of a minimum 15 people.